

In your rush to allow further media consolidation, please consider the condition of minority ownership of media (currently 6%, if white women are included, and the situation of the poor, who do not have access to a broad diversity of media outlets. All people should have sufficient access to information to make informed decisions that affect their daily lives. Even under the current system, there are numerous instances of information not being available to those who need it, especially the poor and underprivileged. It is time for this country to be returned to the people, and reclaimed from corporate rule. Thank you.
